New Hope Center
& Fresh Start

My name is Paige Davis and I would like to tell you the story of how The Salvation Army turned my life around.

My daughter, Candice and I came to Colorado Springs from Denver homeless and helpless. We needed a place to start over again.

Come to the New Hope Center was what saved us and began us on our journey towards where we are today.

Because of my time at the shelter, I was able to meet the people who ran The Salvation Army's Fresh Start program, and soon I was enrolled in that program and my daughter and I moved out of the shelter into a program that would give us the stability we needed and the time we needed.

We also go to The Salvation Army church and love it there, and get a lot of support we need.

My daughter is now a freshman at Colorado University in Boulder and wants to be a doctor I will be graduating the Fresh Start program soon.
